NOVAMove Porter RaaS Offer

Introduction

In the fast-paced world of laboratory operations, efficiency and accuracy are paramount. NovaticLab introduces the NOVAMove Porter, an autonomous mobile robot designed to revolutionize sample and material transportation within laboratories.

Through our Robotics-as-a-Service (RaaS) model, we offer a cutting-edge solution that enhances operational efficiency, reduces human error, and allows your staff to focus on what truly matters.

Why NOVAMove Porter?

- Interdepartmental Connectivity: Streamlines lab operations across multiple floors and departments, utilizing elevators and doors autonomously, improving throughput and reducing manual workload.
- Operational Efficiency: Frees up skilled lab technicians from routine sample transportation, optimizing staff use and alleviating labor shortages.
- Cost Savings: Offers a budget-friendly RaaS alternative to manual transport, saving on staffing and operational costs.
- Reliability and Safety: Delivers consistent, error-free performance and adheres to safety standards, minimizing risks in sensitive lab environments.
- Staff Engagement: Elevates staff roles from mundane tasks to high-value functions, boosting job satisfaction and retention in a competitive field.

Transforming Labs with NOVAMove Porter

Since January 2022, three NOVAMove Porters have revolutionized one laboratory's operations, covering 10,950 km and navigating 23,360 floors to deliver 4.74 million samples efficiently. This automation freed up 11,950 hours, allowing staff to focus on critical research and patient care.

The success story of these robots highlights the power of NovaticLab's RaaS solution to enhance productivity and streamline lab operations with precision and reliability.

Our RaaS Offer:

- Turnkey Lab Automation: Transform your lab operations with the NOVAMove Porter, offered at a competitive low monthly rate that unlocks unparalleled efficiency and convenience.
- Uninterrupted Operational Excellence: With our comprehensive service plan, enjoy seamless maintenance, updates, and dedicated support, ensuring your automation journey is smooth and consistent.
- Custom-Tailored Contracts: Discover the benefits of a 3-year RaaS agreement that's crafted to suit your laboratory's unique needs, offering a personalized solution right out of the box.
- Ever-Evolving Efficiency: Secure your position as a leader in innovation with a service that continuously updates your NOVAMove Porter, keeping your operations at the industry's cutting edge.
